

CHAD KENDALL

<http://www.sites.google.com/site/chadwkendall>
chadkend@marshall.usc.edu

Updated: January, 2017

CURRICULUM VITAE

Contact: USC FBE Dept.
701 Exposition Blvd, Ste. 231
HOH-231, MC-1422
Los Angeles, CA, 90089-1422

Office: Hoffman Hall, 805
Phone: (213) 740-7804

Nationality: Canadian

Education: Ph.D. (Economics), University of British Columbia, 2014
M.A. (Economics), Simon Fraser University, 2009
B.A.Sc. (Engineering Physics), Simon Fraser University, 1996

Professional Experience: University of Southern California, Marshall School of Business
Assistant Professor, June 2014 – present

Semiconductor Engineer:

From 1996 to 2008, I worked as a semiconductor engineer for several firms (Castleton Networks, Nortel Networks, Alcatel Canada, and Broadcom Canada). I co-authored eight patents during this time.

Publications: "How do Voters Respond to Information: Evidence from a Randomized Campaign"
(with Tommaso Nannicini and Francesco Trebbi)
American Economic Review, 2015, 105 (1) 322-53

"Incumbency Advantages in the Canadian Parliament" (with Marie Rekkas)
Canadian Journal of Economics, 2012, 45 (4) 1560-1585

Completed Research Papers: "The Time Cost of Information in Financial Markets"

"Rational and Heuristic-Driven Panics in an Experimental Asset Market"

"Are Biased Beliefs Fit to Survive? An Experimental Test of the Market Selection Hypothesis" (with Ryan Oprea)

Herding and Contrarianism: A Matter of Preference

Conferences and Invited Seminars: Chicago Booth, Washington University St. Louis, University of Western Ontario, 5th Miami Behavioral Conference, Cubist Systematic Strategies, Southwest
Economic Theory Conference, Chapman ESI Workshop, 49th Annual CEA
Conference, 2015/2016 Experimental Finance Conference, 11th World Congress of the Econometric Society, Claremont Graduate University, University College London, University of Warwick, Colby College, Bay Area Behavioral and Experimental Workshop 2015/2016, 2016 Western Finance Association, Toulouse School of Economics

Referee: Econometrica
Review of Economic Studies
Review of Economics and Statistics
Journal of Public Economics
Journal of the European Economics Association
Economic Journal
Journal of Banking and Finance
Journal of Mathematical Economics
Canadian Journal of Economics
Macroeconomic Dynamics
Economic Inquiry

Awards: Selected to attend Lindau meetings in Economic Sciences, 2011
Killam Pre-doctoral Fellowship, University of British Columbia, 2010
SSHRC Joseph-Armand Bombardier CGS, University of British Columbia, 2010